Urban Nature

21 July–19 August 2023

artKIT

Humbly invited to the opening of the exhibition Urban Nature by designers Nataša Grandovec and Martina Obid Mlakar, which will take place on Friday, 21st of July 2023, at 19:00 in the exhibition space artKIT.

The exhibition of unique contemporary jewellery in Urban Nature is a perennial project, in which the designers explore the different layers of cohabitation between man and urban nature within the city centre and its close surroundings. With unique pieces of jewellery, the authors interpret walks across urban sections, across the city green and suburban landmarks. They emphasize unique regional flora, among which stands out the world renowned Žametovka (The Old Grape Vine). They also touch on the city fauna: birds atop the tower of city hall, bees which live in the urban setting, etc.

The exhibition is also accompanied by a video by Aljoša Juhart, who in detail explores and weaves jewellery and nature as an inspiration for him.
