

Meta Grgurevič: Grain of Gold

20 October–18 November 2023

MMC KIBLA/KiBela

You are cordially invited to the opening of the solo exhibition Grain of Gold by Meta Grgurevič, which will take place on Friday, 20 October 2023, at 7 p.m. at the KiBela, Space for Art.

Meta Grgurevič has presented her works at Kibla twice so far: in 2010 in KiBela in a duo with Marko Požlep in the exhibition Queens and Criminals, and in 2013 at Portal in the large-scale and exceptional international group exhibition Materiality. Although this is the first time she is exhibiting solo, it seems as if she is consistently continuing the path of “queen” and “material” with the title Grain of Gold.

Her sophisticated and humorous “devices”, in the simplicity of their forms and the complexity of their structures, reveal themselves as exquisitely designed and precisely made objects, which, with their direct yet multi-sensory message, draw on the experiential, the empirical, and derive from the scientific, the exploratory, the searching, the intellectual and the physical. The grain of gold, of course, as a metaphor for possessions and human desires, which are the domain of everyone and everybody, and the wealth shared by the 1% of homo sapiens on Earth, is a demythicization of consumerism, with an ironic deviation.
