

Neža Knez: When Structure is Replaced by Fragmented Moments

27 October–25 November 2023

artKIT

You are cordially invited to the opening of the When Structure is Replaced by Fragmented Moments exhibition by Neža Knez, which will be held on Friday, 27 October, 2023, at 6 p.m., at the artKIT exhibition space.

*»I start the sentence for you to catch it,
the melody for you to recreate it,
the images for you to assemble them.«*

The installation When Structure is Replaced by Fragmented Moments reexamines film and its analog characteristics as a physical object, as well as its systems of representation. Like a contemporary media archaeologist Knez uses sound-equipped analog film devices and 16mm film, to shape and inhabit the exhibition space. This leads us to confront immaterial similarities - flashes of the real within the everyday. The sound-enhanced entities gain a lively DIY authority and a multi-perspectival haptic quality. They operate autonomously, and playfully, in their environment. The film runs in circles, turns, appears and disappears rhythmically, and clearly demonstrates the meticulous manual assembly of the image. There is no concealment. It is sincere, just as it is, and what we see, is what it is.
